I agree to cooperate fully with LAF. This means, among other things, to tell the truth about my case, income and assets; to help LAF get all the facts about my case; to tell LAF right away if my address or phone number change, or if my assets and income change; and to keep all appointments with LAF, including required court dates. (If I cannot keep an appointment, I will notify LAF as soon as possible.)

2) ETHICAL SERVICE:

LAF agrees to act according to applicable ethical rules. This means, among other things, telling me about important events in my case. My case may be assigned to a non-attorney who is supervised by an attorney.

LAF will keep my information confidential as required by ethical rules. However, I give LAF permission to reveal information about me or my case whenever LAF needs to do so to investigate my case and represent me. LAF can also reveal information when it believes the law, legal ethics, or LAF's funders require LAF to do so. LAF is required to reveal confidential information if necessary to prevent death or great bodily harm. LAF will always use reasonable care to protect my private information.

If LAF files a lawsuit in my case, federal law requires LAF to disclose: 1) my name and address; 2) the opposing party's name and address; 3) a description of my case; 4) the case number and court. This information may become available to the general public. I agree that LAF may make these disclosures. LAF will not disclose this information if LAF believes that doing so would put me at risk of physical harm.

I also agree that LAF may disclose or discuss any information about my case that is in court documents or other public documents. LAF may make statements to, for example, the media, LAF's funders, or other organizations. I give LAF permission to do so. If I do not want LAF to discuss my case, I will ask my LAF attorney not to do so.

3) SETTLEMENT:

LAF may discuss with the other side the possibility of reaching an agreement (usually a compromise) that resolves my problem, instead of having the court or agency decide my case. That agreement is called a "settlement." I have the final say in whether to offer or accept any settlement. I agree to tell my attorney right away about any settlement offers I get. I agree not to settle the case without talking to my attorney first. LAF will always tell me of any settlement offers from the other side. Section 4 and 5, below, say more about settlements.

4) REIMBURSEMENT OF COSTS:

LAF may pay certain costs in my case, such as filing charges and expert witness fees. LAF may also have to pay for services such as printing, copying, or court reporting.

LAF will ask the court to make the other side pay these costs when the law allows it to. If the court orders the other side to pay costs, I agree that the costs can be paid back directly to LAF and not to me. If LAF pays costs and cannot get paid back from the other side, I will pay those costs. If the court awards me money or I get money in a settlement, I agree that LAF can pay itself back for its costs with that money. LAF may decide I do not have to pay costs if I cannot afford them.

5) ATTORNEYS' FEES:

In some cases, the law allows LAF to claim attorneys' fees from the other side. LAF has my permission to seek, collect and keep attorneys' fees in those cases. Fees are an important part of LAF's budget. LAF uses fees to help other clients who cannot afford an attorney. LAF will never ask me to pay fees with money I already have.

LAF may get more money in fees than I get if I win. This is because courts award fees by multiplying the number of hours the attorney (or paralegal) worked by a reasonable rate per hour. The fees do not depend on how much I get. If the case takes a lot of time, the fees can be a lot more than the amount that goes to the winning party.

I agree that LAF can take its fees out of money from a settlement. LAF will never take more than the court could have awarded—LAF's hours of work multiplied by an hourly rate. The other side might offer money to settle without saying how much goes to me, and how much goes to LAF. If that happens, LAF will let me know how much I would get and how much LAF would get. LAF's share will be, at the most, the fees a court could award, plus the costs described in Section 4. LAF may decide to take less.

After LAF tells me how the settlement would be divided, it is my decision whether to accept the settlement offer. LAF will discuss the decision with me. I can ask a non-LAF lawyer, at my expense, for advice on whether to take a settlement when LAF takes part of it as its fees and costs. I will let LAF know if I choose to do that.

If I get a judgment in my favor that includes fees or costs, LAF has my permission to have another law firm of its choice collect the entire judgment. LAF will only do this if LAF believes it is the best way to collect as much of the judgment as possible. The collecting firm may be allowed to reimburse its costs and keep the first 30% of the money collected. The remaining money collected will be divided between me and LAF in the same proportion as my part of the judgment is to LAF's part. I authorize the collecting firm to endorse checks made out to me in this process. LAF will let me know whenever any part of my judgment is collected and arrange for me to receive my part of it.

Even if I end this agreement, LAF has the right to seek fees for the work it did, and costs.

6) SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF REPRESENTATION (initial any that apply):

LAF will only represent me if I agree to the following conditions, and can end this agreement if LAF determines I have not complied with them:

On or before the ___th of each month, I will deposit with LAF $_____, my monthly rent/mortgage amount, for LAF to keep in an escrow account;

I will sign releases permitting LAF to obtain my (or my children's) medical, psychological, educational, or other confidential records;

I will agree to settle the case, if possible, on the following terms:

Other: _____

7) ENDING THIS AGREEMENT:

This is an agreement only for the matter described on page 1. It will end automatically when that case ends.

If the court or agency permits it, I may end this agreement before that time by telling LAF that I no longer want it to be my attorney. If I do that, LAF does not have to get another attorney to represent me.

LAF may end this agreement if

- I do not comply with any part of it;
- LAF cannot locate me;
- I am no longer financially eligible;
- I do not obey a court order that LAF advises me to obey; or
- Ethical rules require LAF to stop representing me.

If there are other reasons why LAF cannot continue to represent me, LAF will let me know.

8) COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

If I have a complaint about LAF, I have the right to have it reviewed as follows:

First, a supervisory attorney will review my complaint and try to solve the problem. If I am not satisfied that the problem was solved, I may have the complaint reviewed by LAF's Executive Director, or someone she designates.

If that person does not resolve my complaint, I may then have my complaint reviewed by a committee or sub-committee of the Board of Directors of LAF.

All complaints will be reviewed within a reasonable period of time after they are made, but no longer than 60 days.

SIGNATURES

By signing this agreement, I am stating that I have read it or have had it explained to me, and I understand it and agree.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
